Ch 1: Basics of R

windows alternative learning install guide workspace <e><>> COlumn line commandpackages result input orking stando click is specification. character frame typing directory umns volume, information include <e><section started true workspace.

Ch 2: R Environment

```
width \frac{8}{5} line environment \frac{9}{5} and/or installation \frac{9}{5} workspace, markdown
  directory. final package
lirectory
                                               markup
                                          file. type files.
output note rorkspace files htmllist osystem line. For packages, path of session number session default place of system default place session number default place clicking workspace. generated extract document.
```

Chs 4,5: Data . . .

```
markup names lineger vector. matrix object <ef><ac><>le methods data. information clicksection true vector argument
orking objects
nodel
rows objects
listfunctions
nas
                                                                   web classes
      ctors
                                                                  returns
      ctors
                                                               <e><><f>
     neric
ass
thus:
dates values levels missing di<e><>erent frame, sapply() <ef><ac><>rst create o
common false numbers of
```